

Future Goals and Plans

In the future, I hope I can be a professional instructional technologist in the field. Currently, if possible, I plan on seeking a relevant position at higher education setting in order to have more opportunities for continual learning and professional growth. However, I have a strong interest in working in business/industry and desire to build experience in fast-paced and competitive business settings.